LIST OF BOOKS PRINTED ON CLUB PAPER AT THE PRIVATE EXPENSE
OF INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS.X MEMOIRS OF HIS OWN LIFE, BY SIR JAMES MELVILLE OF HALLHILL. M.D.XLIX-M.D.XCII.

Reprinted at Edinburgh, M.DCCC.XXXIII. Quarto, pp. 449; Index, pp. xvi; Preface, pp. xxviii; Notice and List of Members, pp. iv.

Fifty copies of this reprint of the edition prepared for the BANNATYNE CLUB, under the superintendence of Thomas Thomson, Esquire, in 1827, were printed by subscription for the use of fifty Subscribers, who obtained permission from Mr Thomson; all of them being Members of the Maitland Club, and not connected with the other literary institution.

As these Memoirs were reprinted on Maitland Club paper, it is thought proper that the book should be here classed among the other works of the Club; although it was reprinted at the private expense of some of the Members, as Subscribers, and not printed for distribution among all the Members, out of the general fund.

Circulated February 20, 1833.

No. IV.

† ANCIENT CRIMINAL TRIALS IN SCOTLAND, COMPILED
FROM THE ORIGINAL RECORDS AND MSS., WITH HISTORICAL ILLUS-TRATIONS, &c. By ROBERT PITCAIRN, Esquire.

Edinburgh. M.DCCC.XXXIII. Quarto, arranged to bind in VII. Volumes.

Of this collection, which was published for general sale, sixty copies were printed on Club paper. Fifty-one copies were purchased for the Members and the Library of the Club.

The remainder were reserved by MR PITCAIRN, at the suggestion of the Committee, to supply future Members, and to complete sets; for which purpose he was permitted to purchase paper, at cost price, from the Club.

The first five Parts were subscribed for out of the general fund, and the remaining Parts were furnished, on the same terms, to such Members as desired to complete their sets.

A few entire copies of this work still remain for the use of Members of the Maitland Club; and several broken sets can still be completed, on application to Mr Pitcairn, or to the Secretary.

This work appeared and was delivered to the Members of the Maitland Club, in Ten successive PARTS, in the following order:—

SIR PATRICK WALKER, KNIGHT.
WILSON DOBIE WILSON, ESQ.

JOHN KERR, ESQ. Vice-President, in the Chair.

The following Report of the proceedings of the Club during the last year, was laid before the Meeting:—

REPORT of the Proceedings of the Maitland Club, since the General Annual Meeting of eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and of the present state of its funds.

THE Council, immediately after the General Annual Meeting of last year, had an offer for publication by the Club, from Joseph Stevenson, Esq., of a SELECTION OF LETTERS BY SCOTSMEN, Illustrative of the History of Scotland, from 1517 to 1530, the originals of which were in the British Museum. The estimate to copy, edit, and supply notes, preface, and index, amounted to the sum of Fifty Pounds.

This proposal the Secretary was instructed to accept, conditionally, that letters were supplied to form a volume of not less than twenty-five sheets.

Till early in November subsequent, this arrangement was conceived to be in progress of completion, when a letter was received from Mr. Stevenson, intimating that he had ascertained from Mr. Lemon, Keeper of the State Paper Office, that he was instructed by the Record Commission to edit a Volume of Scottish Letters, of the time of Henry the Eighth, which would include many of those in the list Mr. Stevenson had offered, and proposing that the arrangement for the Maitland publication should be considered at an end, as it would have been rendered comparatively valueless by the publication of the purchasable work edited by Mr. Lemon.

In these circumstances the Council directed the Secretary to express to Mr. Stevenson the sense of obligation felt by his proposal to relieve the Club from its engagement to publish these Letters, and to accept the same.

The next object of publication to which the attention of the Council was directed, was the possibility of obtaining a copy of an unique Manuscript in Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, known by the few extracts of Leland, under the denomination of the SCALA CHRONICA.

Mr. Stevenson intimated to the Secretary that he had visited Cambridge with a view to examine the Manuscript, and become sufficiently acquainted with its contents, and that having done so, he was of opinion there was no Chronicle the printing of which would do so much honour to the Maitland Club.

“That the Author of the Chronicle, Thomas Grai, had been an active soldier employed during many years in Border transactions, and Governor of Norham Castle—was an eye witness of many of the events which he details—was taken prisoner in 1355, and conveyed to Edinburgh, and there he commenced the Chronicle. The evidence of such an historian gives immense value to the latter part of his Chronicle; and in the formation of the earlier period, he seems to have availed himself of local materials, since he frequently agrees with Fordun, Barbour, and Wyntown, where they vary from the accounts of the English writers. He also used a singularly valuable document for the History of Robert de Bruce, which time has not spared us, at least the facts which he details are not to be found in Barbour.”

The Secretary was authorised to request Mr. Stevenson to transmit a statement of the probable extent of the Scala Chronica, and the expense that would be incurred in copying and collating and superintending it through the press, including preface and index.

Mr. Stevenson being in Glasgow early in June last, made the following communication.

“In again inviting your attention to the Scala Chronica, I deem it unnecessary to recapit-tulate the observations previously made upon its historical value. Should the Club determine upon its publication, it appears to me that there are two periods from which it might commence, either from the year 1066, or 1272. The first of these plans would embrace about 320 of your pages; or if you preferred the latter era, the number might be reduced to about 230. As to the total expense, I beg leave to remind you of some of the outlay which will be incurred before the copy can be procured. It will be necessary for me to send a competent gentleman to Cambridge to transcribe the text; the remuneration which he will receive for the copying of the Old Norman French will amount to L.1 5s. (at least) per sheet. He cannot copy more than a sheet in two days, and will frequently be prevented from having the use of the MS. by the absence of the Master, holidays, &c.; consequently I shall have to support him in the expense of living at Cambridge for three months, which at the lowest calculation will amount to two guineas a week, to which will be added travelling expenses. To these I add my own expenses, making the text cost the Club L.150 for 40 sheets. As I cannot state with certainty that 40 sheets will be the exact number, I take the liberty of proposing that the deficiency or overplus of the text when printed, shall diminish or increase the present calculation at the same ratio. I hereby express my anxiety to undertake the publication of the volume, which I shall complete in every way, as far as editorship is concerned, forming 50 sheets, for the sum of L.185."

Which letter having been maturely considered, the Council unanimously resolved to accept the offer therein contained, but delay till next meeting deciding at which date the printing of the Chronicle should commence; and in the mean time authorise the Secretary to communicate to Mr. Stevenson the resolution of the Council to publish the work, and to request from him further information as to the value of the contents previous to the year 1272.

The Committee appointed for the publication of Part I, Vol. II. of the MISCELLANY OF THE CLUB, have already printed the Dream of Rob Stene, from a Manuscript in the Library of Dumblane, apparently of the period of James the Sixth; and have collected, and are assured of many important Manuscripts, so as to enable them speedily to complete the volume.

Another volume is in progress through the press of EARLY DOCUMENTS RELATIVE TO THE CATHEDRAL OF GLASGOW, commencing with Excerpts from the Chartulary of the Archiepiscopal See of Glasgow.

Progress has also been made in copying manuscript for a Second Volume of the WODROW BIOGRAPHIES, commencing with that of Principal Boyd of Trochrig.

At a Meeting of the Council, on the 5th day of May, it was resolved that a motion be submitted for the approval of the Members, that the NUMBER OF MEMBERS of the Club should be extended from 70 to 80. This was urged to be expedient from the certainty of respectable Candidates offering, from the additional funds their admission would put at the disposal of the Club, and from the circumstance that the number proposed would exhaust the extra copies printed at the expense of the Club, of "Hamilton's Lanarkshire," of the "Maitland Miscellany," the "Wodrow Biographies," and other Club Books, the distribution of which would operate as a barrier to any further extension of the Members of the Club.

On the 10th of July following, it was resolved as the opinion not only of the Members present, but of a majority of those absent, who expressed their sentiments by letters, that the Club should be increased from 70 to 80 Members.

At a General Meeting of the Club, on the 6th of November following, it was resolved that till the number of the Club is full, a majority of Members voting in favour of a Candidate shall constitute an Election.

On the 2d October last, Archd. Campbell, Esq. of Blythiswood, was elected a Member of the Club. On November 27th, Sir Michael Shaw Stewart, Bart., and John B. Gracie, Esq. W.S., were elected Members of the Club. On January 8th, John Dunlop, Esq. of Dunlop, and W. B. D. D. Turnbull, Esq., were elected Members of the Club. And on March 12th, Beriah Botfield, Esq., and Andrew Rutherford, Esq., were elected Members of the Club.

Although by the resolution of the General Meeting of the Club the number of the Members was increased to 80, thereby occasioning 10 new Members to be elected, yet in consequence of the death of our highly esteemed associates, George Smythe, Esq., and Andrew Skene, Esq., the number of Members at present enrolled in the Club is 76.

Since last General Meeting there have been PRINTED at the expense of the Club :—

COLLECTIONS upon the LIVES OF THE REFORMERS and most eminent Ministers of the Church of Scotland. By the Rev. Robert Wodrow, Minister of the Gospel at Eastwood. 2 Vols.

MISCELLANY OF THE MAITLAND CLUB, consisting of Original Papers and other Documents illustrative of the History and Literature of Scotland. Vol. I. Part II.

GLASGOW, 17th April, 1835.

WE have examined the foregoing account, with the vouchers connected therewith, and find it fairly and accurately stated.

WILLIAM FLEMING.
JOHN SMITH, Y^{EST}.

THE Committee of Management having thus exhibited a vidimus of their proceedings since last General Meeting, and of the state of the accounts and engagements of the Club, may be permitted to add, that although the MAITLAND CLUB was the last formed of those devoted to similar objects, it has not been rivalled since its establishment by either of its predecessors in the number and importance of its publications.

Reported by JOHN SMITH, Y^{EST}.

On the motion of Robert Pitcairn, Esq., the Meeting unanimously approved of the Report, and directed it to be engrossed in the Minutes, and printed and circulated among the Members.

It was resolved that Members admitted during the present year should pay Five Guineas in addition to the Annual Subscription, in consideration of the Books they may receive printed previous to their admission, at the expense of the Club.

The Meeting having considered the Report by the Treasurer of the debts and engagements of the Club, resolved that the sum of Three Guineas shall be collected from each Member as the Annual Subscription, April 1834, to April 1835, and the Treasurer is authorised to grant receipts accordingly.

The Meeting authorise the Council to call one or more General Meetings for Election of Members during the following year, at such times as may appear most expedient.

The Meeting having maturely considered the printed proof sheet circulated among the Members, containing alterations on the original RULES and additional Regulations for the government of the Club, resolved, that as now revised, they shall be engrossed in the Minutes as the Rules of the Club, and direct the Secretary to have them printed and circulated among the Members.

✧ The Meeting then proceeded to elect Office-Bearers for the ensuing year, when the following Members of the Club were chosen :—

PRESIDENT,

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF GLASGOW.

VICE-PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM MACDOWALL, ESQ.

SECRETARY,

JOHN SMITH, YGST. ESQ.

TREASURER,

COUNCIL,

JOHN KERR, ESQ.

THE VERY REV. PRINCIPAL MACFARLAN.

WILLIAM SMITH, ESQ.

WILLIAM MOTHERWELL, ESQ.

THE REV. WILLIAM FLEMING, D.D.

WILLIAM JAMES DUNCAN, ESQ.

JOHN STRANG, ESQ.

JAMES SMITH, ESQ.

It was afterwards resolved, that Meetings of the Council, which are open to all the Members of the Club, shall continue to be held in the Hall of HUTCHESONS' HOSPITAL, on the first Thursday of each Month, at Three o'Clock, P. M.

OF

APRIL, M.D.CCC.XXXV.

I. T H E object of the Club shall be to print Works illustrative of the Antiquities, History, and Literature of Scotland.

II. The number of Members shall be limited to E I G H T Y.

III. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on the last Monday of March, or on a day soon after, as the Council shall appoint, for the election of Office-bearers, and for other business ; and the President, or in his absence, the Vice-President, shall have power to call Extraordinary General Meetings, upon giving previous notice of three weeks to the Members. All matters, at such meetings, shall be decided by a majority of votes, except as herein after provided, in the case of balloting for new Members.

IV. The affairs of the Club shall be conducted by a Committee of Management, consisting of the office-bearers, namely, a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, and of Eight Members, all of whom shall be elected annually, at the General Meeting. The whole shall be eligible to be re-elected.

V. The meetings of the Committee of Management shall be open to all the Members, and shall be held on the first Thursday of every month for the despatch of the business of the Club. Every Member attending shall be entitled to vote.

VI. No election of Members shall take place, except at a General Meeting, called expressly for that purpose, either by a Resolution of the Club at their Annual General Meeting, or of the Committee of Management, at one of their monthly meetings;—and three weeks previous to the day of election, the Secretary shall transmit to each Member a List of the Candidates, with the names of the Members by whom they have been respectively proposed.

VII. The election of Members shall take place by sealed lists, each bearing on the envelope the signature of the Member by whom it is given : and a majority of the whole number of votes so given, shall be sufficient for the admission of a Candidate, provided the said majority shall amount to twenty.

VIII. The annual contribution of each Member to the Funds of the Club shall be Three Guineas, or such other sum as shall be fixed at the Annual General Meeting ; and the payment of this contribution shall be made to the Treasurer, on or before the first day of May, in each year.

IX. If any Member fails to pay his contribution before the last Monday of September, annually, his privileges shall be suspended until payment ; and in the event of his failing to pay the annual contribution for one year, such failure shall be reported to the first monthly meeting of the Committee of Management ; and if the contribution is not paid within three months thereafter, he shall cease to be a member of the Club ; but in either case the Treasurer shall intimate to defaulters, one month previous to the expiration of the periods above mentioned, the consequences of the contribution not being paid.

X. The Funds of the Club shall be under the control of the Committee of Management ; and shall be expended, generally, in furtherance of the objects of the Club.

XI. The Council shall decide on the Works, and fix the number of copies of each Work to be printed for the Club. The Members shall receive one copy each of such Works, free of all charge. The remaining copies to be at the disposal of the Committee of Management.

XII. When Works printed by the Club are of such importance as to render it expedient to extend their circulation beyond the Members, the Committee of Management may direct an impression to be thrown off, for Sale, on paper different from that used by the Club.

XIII. If any Member of the Club shall undertake to print a work, at his own expense, he shall, after due intimation to the Committee of Management, be furnished with the necessary supply of paper made for the Publications of the Club ; it being understood that every Member shall receive one copy of such Work, and that the number of copies to be printed on Club Paper shall not exceed ninety-six.
